Useful Information

Housing
The University of Chile does not have accommodation or housing. For further information concerning private lodging, please contact pme@u.uchile.cl

Arrival dates for exchange students
For the first and second semester 2017, we suggest to be in Chile one week before orientation.

Living expenses
Average cost for housing and meals per month is approximately US$600 - US$800

Spanish course
For those interested in improving their Spanish proficiency, information about courses is available at http://uchile.cl/u6694. Please get in contact with Claudia Flores for further assistance cflores@u.uchile.cl

Studies

Academic workload for International Students
Students must complete from 3 to 4 courses per semester (according to exchange agreements). International students will require to be enrolled on no more than 5 courses.
12 to 20 hours per week are considered as full workload in one semester.

Transcript of Records
Records will be sent to the International Office of each Partner University, four weeks after the end of each semester.

Credit System

The student Mobility Program conducts the entry of International Students to the University of Chile in order to allow them to pursue courses in different faculties and institutes.

All courses enrolled by International Students through the Student Mobility Program are expressed on credits, according to the table below, which considers only the actual attendance or teaching hours and associate them to a number of credits for each class/course.
