5. Program Eligibility Criteria and Requirements
Applicants must meet all of the following requirements in addition to those listed in the guidelines:
(1) The lectures, discussion and presentations of this program are conducted primarily in English, therefore participants must be fully motivated and possess sufficient proficiency in English. Also, as the company visit will contain some sessions in Japanese, some proficiency in Japanese will be preferable.
(2) Students who need a visa to enter Hong Kong must write in the ‘Special Notes’ column of the application form indicating that they require a visa. See the websites of the Chinese Embassy in Japan as well as the Chinese Ministry of Foreign Affairs for more details on visas.

http://www.china-embassy.or.jp/jpn/lsvf/hzqzyw/t938315.htm
http://cs.mfa.gov.cn/wgrlh/

(For Japanese passport holders, visas are not necessary to enter Hong Kong if the period of stay is 90 days or less.)

Chinese students will need to have entry visas issued as this is an official university program.

6. Program Application, Course Registration and Credits

(1) All students wishing to participate in this program must apply by the deadline and abide by all the terms and condition set forth in the guidelines.

(2) The following students who wish to participate in this program must enroll in the courses indicated below during the registration period. Those who are approved to participate in the program will receive credits for this course provided that they meet the designated requirements. However, graduate students who are scheduled to graduate in the autumn will not be able to participate in this program.

1. Graduate students: Graduates in the Program for Leading Graduate Schools
   【Graduate School of Arts and Sciences course subject [Seminar in Integrated Human Sciences for Cultural Diversity III] (Subject Code: 31D370-0220S) Winter Term (S2) 2 credits】

2. Graduate students: All others

3. Undergraduate students (including second year PEAK students):
   【College of Arts and Sciences subject [Special Topics: Japan in East Asia II] (Subject Code: 08C403302) (A1,A2) 2 credits】

Note: Enrolling in the designated course during the registration period does not automatically guarantee participation in the program. To participate in this program, please note that students must apply and be ultimately accepted into the program following the screening process carried out by the University.

Note: Undergraduate students who belong to Junior Division (except second year PEAK students) cannot receive credits for this course as it is not designed as a course.

7. Program Costs

Total fees: approximately JPY 100,000 (including meals in Hong Kong, transportation in Tokyo, etc.) plus airfare

(1) Airfare
   Airline tickets should be purchased individually by each participant. Although students will meet at the designated venue, it would be preferable for students to travel as a group and take the same flight if possible. (For reference, discount economy class tickets during this period costs in excess of JPY 50,000.)

(2) Accommodation Costs
   Free.

(3) Program fee: JPY 30,000
This program is sponsored by the FU DELIN Scholarships, and use part of the cost from this scholarship.

8. Scholarships
   Scholarship amount: JPY 70,000 (In principle, there is no need to repay)
   ※ For details of scholarship, see Attachment sheet 1.

9. Other Important Information
   For all students who pass the screening process, a preliminary information session regarding this program will be held on Saturday, July 8.
   Participants must make sure to attend this session as it will cover the details about the activities of each group, the preparations necessary before departure, information about the residence halls where students will be staying, and any other important points.
