◆Note:
The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ

- After four business days, you may pick up your bankbook by showing your Student ID card and confirmation number at the office on the same campus as you applied (details will be given when you apply).
- Only those who can speak Japanese can apply for a credit card. On the contrary, everyone can apply for VISA debit card (optional).
- Your ATM card / credit card / debit card will be sent separately to your address given on the application form in a few weeks.

Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation

- Please pick up your bankbook at the office on the 8th floor of Administration Bureau Bldg. 1, Hongo Campus, by showing your Student ID card and confirmation number. You can pick up your bankbook in the afternoon four business days after you apply.
- You can also apply for a credit card (optional).
- Your ATM card and credit card will be sent separately to your address given on the application form in a few weeks.

For the first six months after residing in Japan, in order to send money directly from your bank account to a bank account inside Japan, you have to use a teller in a bank instead of the ATM machines. (However, you can withdraw cash, and send cash to a bank account inside Japan by using the ATM machines. You can also use automatic withdrawal service for payment such as rent and utilities.)
