1. Program Objectives
This is a two week program which includes Chinese language classes, cultural activities, and interaction among students provided by Zhejiang University. This program is held at the start of the new semester for international exchange students who will be studying at Zhejiang University. Participants will be able to learn Chinese culture and society and will be given a broad knowledge required as a global talent, through 1) Chinese language classes based on their level of proficiency in the Chinese language, 2) experience gained through discussion and collaborate with Zhejiang University and other country’s students, and 3) through experiences of cultural knowledge and practical skills that cannot be experienced in your country.

2. Program Contents
Chinese language class: 20 classes per week (One class is 45 minutes). Students will be divided into classes based on their Chinese language level by the results of the placement tests held on the first day. Classes will range from beginners to advanced level. Also, there are some culture classes, company visits and chances to interact with students from Zhejiang University (refer to the tentative schedule).
