Japan-India Exchange Seminar

My study abroad and job-hunting experiences in Japan: Roundtable discussions by Indian alumni

The number of Indian students studying in Japan will have reached 1,869 in 2019 (according to JASSO), and there are high expectations for them as highly skilled human resources who will be active in Japan. In this seminar, three former Indian students who studied in Japan will talk about their experiences on job hunting, what they learned during their study in Japan, and their current jobs to deepen our understanding of what Indian students expect in terms of employment in Japan.
