Article 1       Purpose
1. The purpose of these Rules is to stipulate matters prescribed in the University of Tokyo Rules on Graduate Schools (the “Rules on Graduate Schools”) to be determined by each graduate school and matters that the Graduate School of Science at the University of Tokyo (hereinafter referred to as the “Graduate School”) deems necessary.
2. The examination committee of the Graduate School (the “examination committee”) shall determine the curriculum of, examinations at, admission to and completion of the Graduate School other than those stipulated in these Rules upon discussion by each department meeting.

Article 1-2   Educational and Research Purposes
1. The purpose of the Graduate School is to teach scientific principles and methodologies to students who will lead the next generation and to develop resourceful, international human resources who have the knowledge and methodology to solve unknown issues for the fixed purpose of education and research for creating, developing and passing on wisdom with the aim of having a fundamental understanding of the truth behind nature.
2. The purpose regarding training of human resources at each department and other educational and research purposes shall be prescribed separately.

Article 2 Requirements for Completing the Master’s Program
1. The requirements for completing the Master’s program shall be as prescribed in Article 5, paragraph 1 of the Rules on Graduate Schools. However, a student demonstrating exceptional academic achievements may be permitted to graduate after one year of study as an exception.
2. Any matters necessary to the application of the exception in the proviso of the preceding paragraph shall be prescribed separately.

Article 3 Requirements for Completing Doctorate Program Senior Division
The requirements for completing the doctorate program senior division are as set out in Article 6, paragraph 1 of the Rules on Graduate Schools and 20 credits or more of the required courses stipulated by the Graduate School must be obtained. However, with respect to the enrollment period, in exceptional cases, a student demonstrating excellent research achievements may be permitted to graduate after more years than those stipulated below have passed:

1. One year for students who were enrolled in the Master’s program or a professional degree program for more than two years and completed that program.
2. Three years including the enrollment period in a Master’s program or a professional degree program for students who were enrolled in a Master’s program or a professional degree program for at least one and less than two years and completed that program.
3. One year for students who are admitted to the Graduate School pursuant to the provisions of Article 16, paragraph 2, item (7) and item (8) of the Rules on Graduate Schools.

Article 4 Special Screening
If the examination committee intends to approve the application of the exception in the proviso of the preceding Article, it will hold a special screening meeting under Article 5 and conduct a screening thereof.

The special screening described in the preceding paragraph will be proposed for the examination committee by the head of the department.

Article 5 Special Screening Committee
The special screening committee consists of the members of the examination committee set out in Article 7 of the Rules on Academic Degrees and several members required to be designated by the dean of the Graduate School.

Article 6 Curriculum
1. The courses and credits of each department shall be as prescribed in the Appended Table. However, the examination committee may prescribe otherwise upon discussion with each department meeting.
2. With respect to the number of credits for a course, one credit will be conferred for the course hours of 15 weeks of one hour per week for lecture courses, two hours per week for exercise courses (including rotation lecture courses) or three hours per week for experiments or practical courses.
3. If a student requests that he or she be permitted to complete the educational component of a degree program structured so that the student completes the component during a certain period that exceeds the standard duration of that program due to childbirth, childcare or the need to care for a family member, the Graduate School may, pursuant to Article 2, paragraph 7 of the Rules on Graduate Schools, approve such request upon discussion by the examination committee. The detailed rules shall be prescribed separately.

Article 7 Method of Completion
Students must take courses in accordance with the instruction from an academic adviser, and receive necessary research guidance.

Article 8
In the Master’s program, the students who have completed the following courses may count them towards the credits of the Master’s program after obtaining approval from the academic adviser.
(1) Courses of the faculty (the number of credits that may be counted to be prescribed separately)
(2) Courses of other departments, graduate schools or education units

Article 9
In the Doctorate Program Senior Division, the students who have completed the following courses may count them towards the credits of the Doctorate Program Senior Division after obtaining approval from the academic adviser.
(1) Courses of the faculty (the number of credits completed shall be prescribed separately)
(2) Courses of the Master’s program
(3) Courses of another department, another graduate school or an education unit
(4) Up to 10 credits earned in excess of the requirement for the Master’s program

Article 10 Research Advice at Other Graduate Schools or Research Institutes
1. Research advice received at other graduate schools or research institutes, etc. set out in Article 12 of the Rules on Graduate Schools will be approved based on an application by the academic adviser upon discussion by the examination committee.
2. In addition to the preceding paragraph, any matters necessary to the research advice received at other graduate schools or research institutes, etc. shall be prescribed separately.

Article 11 Course Registration and Application for Examinations
If any student intends to take courses or to obtain credits for the courses completed, the student shall register for the courses within the designated period in the prescribed application form.

Article 12 Examinations
1. Examinations are held at the end of each semester and academic year. However, academic staff may replace examinations with regular academic records or reports.
2. In addition to the preceding paragraph, a makeup examination may be taken if the examination committee deems it particularly necessary.

Article 13 Thesis
Students shall submit a thesis to the dean of the Graduate School within the designated period upon guidance from the academic adviser.

Article 14 Final Examinations
1. The final examination will be taken by students who have obtained the required subjects and credits, received necessary research guidance and submitted a thesis.

2. The date and method of final examinations shall be announced in advance.
