March 29, 2012	March 27, 2014
November 27, 2014	January 28, 2016
March 20, 2018	March 22, 2019
March 21, 2024

Article 1 (Purpose)

The purpose of these Rules is to specify examination, admission and tuition fees under the following rules:

- (1) Article 58-2, paragraphs 1 and 2, and Article 66, paragraph 1 of the University of Tokyo General Rules on College/Faculties (“General Rules on College/Faculties.”)
- (2) Article 35, paragraph 1 of the University of Tokyo Rules on Graduate Schools (“Rules on Graduate Schools”).
- (3) Article 4, paragraph 4, and Article 18, paragraph 2 of the University of Tokyo Rules on Academic Degrees (“Rules on Academic Degrees”).
- (4) Article 24, paragraph 1, Article 25, paragraph 2, and Article 26, paragraph 2 of the Rules for the 6-Year Secondary School Affiliated to the Faculty of Education of the University of Tokyo (“Secondary School”)
- (5) Article 10 of the University of Tokyo Rules for the Research Students of the Institute of Medical Science, Article 10 of the University of Tokyo Rules for the Research Students of the Earthquake Research Institute, Article 10 of the University of Tokyo Rules for the Research Students of the Institute of Industrial Science, Article 10 of the University of Tokyo Rules for the Research Students of the Institute for Quantitative Biosciences, Article 10 of the University of Tokyo Rules for the Research Students of the Institute of Solid State Physics, Article 10 of the University of Tokyo Rules for the Research Students of the Atmosphere and Ocean Research Institute, and Article 10 of the University of Tokyo Rules for the Research Students of the Research Center for Advanced Science and Technology.

- (6) Article 26 of the University of Tokyo Rules for the Undergraduate Research Student Program of the Interfaculty Initiative in Information Studies (“Undergraduate Research Student Program of the Interfaculty Initiative in Information Studies”).

Article 2 (Amount of Examination Fees, Admission Fees, and Tuition Fees)

1. Table 1 shows the amount of examination fees, admission fees, and tuition fees for undergraduate and graduate students under Article 58-2, paragraph 1 of the General Rules on College/Faculties, and Article 35, paragraph 1 of the Rules on Graduate Schools.

2. Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, when the University permits a student to plan and take a long period of time exceeding his/her standard period of study (“long-term enrollment period”) to complete the curriculum under Article 2, paragraph 2 of the General Rules on College/Faculties and Article 2, paragraph 7 of the Rules on Graduate Schools (“long-term study student”), the annual tuition fee* shall be calculated as follows:

$$\begin{array}{rcccl} \text{Annual tuition fee} & & \text{Standard period} & & \text{Number of years in} \\ \text{under the} & & \text{of study (number} & & \text{long-term} \\ \text{preceding} & \times & \text{of years)} & \div & \text{enrollment period} \\ \text{paragraph} & & & & \end{array}$$

(*The calculated amount is to be rounded up to the nearest JPY 10.)

3. Table 2 shows the amount of examination fees, admission fees, and tuition fees for students at the Secondary School under Article 24, paragraph 1, Article 25, paragraph 2, and Article 26, paragraph 2 of the Rules for the Secondary School.

Article 3 (Special Provisions for Tuition Fees and Collection Method for Long-term Study Student)

1. If a long-term study student remains enrolled even after the long-term enrollment period ends, an annual tuition fee for that exceeding period shall be the same amount as shown in Table 1.
2. If a long-term study student completes the curriculum sometime during an academic year, a tuition fee* is calculated as follows:

Annual tuition fee under paragraph 2 of the preceding paragraph \div 12 \times Number of months to enroll

(*The calculated account is to be rounded up to the nearest JPY 10.)

The student should pay this fee in the first month of the academic year. However, if the student is expected to complete the curriculum in the second half of the academic year, the University may collect the fees relevant for this period during the collection period for the second half of the academic year.

3. If the University permits a long-term study student to shorten his/her long-term enrollment period, the student must adjust for the difference by paying up the amount calculated in the following way:

Re-calculated annual tuition fee for the shortened enrollment period under paragraph 2 of preceding Article	\times	Number of years the student has already enrolled*	$-$	Total tuition fees payable for the actually enrolled period before re-calculation
---	----------	---	-----	---

* Any fraction of less than one year is rounded up. The same applies below.

 If this occurs sometime during an academic year, it applies until the end of the academic year. The same applies below.

However, if a shortened period becomes equal to the standard period of study, the difference to be paid is as follows:

Annual tuition fee under paragraph 1 of preceding Article	\times	Number of years the student has already enrolled	$-$	Total tuition fees payable for the actually enrolled period before re-calculation

4. If the University permits a long-term study student to further extend the period, the annual tuition fee is re-calculated for such extended period under paragraph 2 of the preceding Article. However, no adjustment will be made for the difference in amount with the tuition fees for the enrolled period.
5. If the University permits a student to become an a long-term study student sometime during an academic year, the new annual tuition fee for the long-term enrollment period is calculated under paragraph 2 of the preceding Article. However, no adjustment will be made for the difference in amount with tuition fees for the enrolled period.
6. If the University revises tuition fees, the new annual tuition fee for long-term study students is calculated based on the revised fee under paragraph 2 of the preceding Article. However, no adjustment will be made for the difference in amount with tuition fees for the already enrolled period.

Admission fee	JPY 282,000	JPY 282,000		JPY 282,000

Note:

1. The amount for "Screening based on application documents" is the chargeable amount when conducting such method of screening under regulations of each department.
2. For undergraduate and law school students, "First stage screening" means screening based on application documents. Those students who pass go through a "Second stage screening" based on academic examination. The chargeable amount for each of these screenings is shown in Table 1 above.
3. Regardless of the value for the examination fees given in the column for undergraduate students in the table above, the examination fee for the International Program courses of the College of Arts and Sciences (PEAK program course) is to be JPY 5,000.

4. Applicants are required to pay an examination fee of JPY 30,000 when transferring to/re-enrolling in a college/faculty or a graduate school (including the law school). However, applicants who wish to enroll into the Senior Division of undergraduate studies, having completed overseas, the courses equivalent to those prescribed in Article 10, paragraph 1, item 5 of the General Rules on College/Faculties, shall pay an examination fee of JPY 10,000 for screening based on application documents as determined by each college/faculty.
5. When a student transfers to/re-enrolls in a college/faculty or a graduate school (including law school), such student should pay the same amount of tuition fees as other students in the same year in the University.
6. As stipulated in the proviso of Article 50, Paragraph 1 of the General Rules on College/Faculties, students entering in September shall be charged half of the annual tuition in November of their first academic year and in May of their final academic year in which they will graduate. The same rule will apply for other academic years. However, Article 52 of the General Rules on College/Faculties will not apply, with exceptions to those who exceeded the course duration when September enrollees are expected to graduate in August of their final academic year.
