

Seminar on Opportunities for Academic and Scientific Cooperation between Chile and Japan

Date: September 3rd (Tue), 2013

Time: 14:15 - 17:30 (Doors open: 13:45 -)

Venue: Room 212, Faculty of Engineering Bldg. 2 (1st Floor)

Program:

- Moderator: Dr. Yuzuru Yoshii, Professor of Graduate School of Science(UTokyo)

14:15-14:20 Opening remarks by Dr. Masashi Haneda, Vice President for International Affairs(UTokyo)

Greeting by Mr.Patricio Torres, Ambassador of Chile

14:20-15:00 Presentation by Dr. Jose Miguel Aguilera Radic,
President(CONICYT)

“ Science and Technology in Chile ”

15:00-15:10 Q&A

15:10-15:35 Presentation by Dr. Kenji Satake, Professor of Earthquake
Research Institute(UTokyo)

“ Earthquakes, Tsunamis and Volcanic Eruptions in Chile and Japan “

15:35-15:45 Q&A

15:45-15:55 Coffee Break

15:55-16:15 Presentation by Dr. Denise Saint-Jean, Director of Advanced
Human Capital Program(CONICYT)

“ A Strategy for Science: Graduate Scholarships ”

16:15-16:35 Presentation by Mr. Gonzalo Arenas Sepulveda, Director of International Relations Program(CONICYT)

” Opportunities for Research Cooperation with Chile “

16:35-16:45 Presentation by Ms. Maki Tsuchida, Head of Bilateral
Cooperation Division (JSPS)

“ Grants and Fellowships for Research Collaboration between Chile and Japan ”

16:45-16:55 Q&A

16.55-17.20 Presentation by Dr. Monica Rubio, Professor(University of Chile), Director of Astronomy Program(CONICYT)

“ Astronomic Park “

17.20-17.30 Q&A

17:30-19:00 Reception