The University of Tokyo 2010 Diploma Presentation and Graduation Ceremony

In view of the serious impact of the 2011 Tohoku-Pacific Ocean Earthquake, we will hold the University of Tokyo 2010 Diploma Presentation and Graduation Ceremony on a reduced scale as detailed below.

The status of the disaster remains unpredictable and intermittent aftershocks continue. Our thoughts remain with the many people who have suffered losses. Under these circumstances, we have given careful consideration to whether we should go ahead with the ceremony. We have decided to hold the ceremony on a reduced scale and to the best of our ability under the current conditions, as it represents an important milestone in a student's life.

I would like to express my sincere apologies to our graduates and their parents who had been looking forward to attending the ceremony, but I would be very grateful for your understanding in this difficult time.

From the current academic year, the University of Tokyo has held an autumn graduation ceremony. I would like to invite you to attend the autumn 2011 graduation ceremony. Details will be made available through "TODAI for Tomorrow (TFT)" and the University of Tokyo website.

Junichi Hamada
President, the University of Tokyo

- The diploma presentation will be held only in Koshiba Hall. Only the student representatives from each graduate school will be able to enter the hall. We would like to remind other students and their family members to refrain from coming to the hall.
- We will hold a ceremony only for the student representatives from each graduate school. Please note that we do not have another venue available for other graduating students and their family members.
- The above also applies to the graduation ceremony for undergraduate students.
- Both the diploma presentation and graduation ceremony will be aired live on the Internet. (URL: coming soon)
