Chapter 1 General Provisions

(Purpose of these Rules)

Article 1 These Rules, pursuant to the National University Corporation Act (Act No. 112 of 2003; hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation Act") and the School Education Act (Act No. 26 of 1947), specify the basic matters concerning the organization of the National University Corporation the University of Tokyo (hereinafter referred to as the "University Corporation"), and the University of Tokyo established by the University Corporation and the attached school and attached hospitals of the University of Tokyo.

(Principles of organization)

Article 2 The organization of the University Corporation and of the University of Tokyo established by the University Corporation (including its attached school and attached hospitals; the same applies for the remainder of this Article), pursuant to the Charter of the University of Tokyo, on the basis of the university autonomy entrusted by the citizens of Japan and under the direction and responsibility of the president, shall be structured and operated such that the University of Tokyo is able to accomplish its mission and tasks and autonomously fulfill its obligations arising from the entrustment by the citizens of Japan.

2. The organization of the University Corporation and the University of Tokyo established by the University Corporation shall be comprised of the university-wide organizations and the university academic organizations provided for in these Rules. University academic organizations shall contribute to the development of research and education at the University of Tokyo as a comprehensive research university, each under the direction of the head of the organization appointed by the president, pursuant to the Charter of the University of Tokyo, and implementing research and education activities on their own initiative and responsibility.
3. University of Tokyo academic and administrative staff members have the opportunity to participate in the management of the University of Tokyo, each in accordance with their role and sphere of activity and pursuant to the Charter of the University of Tokyo.
4. The organizational structure and exercise of the authority of the University Corporation and the University of Tokyo established by the University Corporation shall not violate the academic freedom of members of the university academic staff.

(Attached school and attached hospitals)

Article 3 Pursuant to the provisions of the Corporation Act and ordinances of the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology based on the Corporation Act, the Secondary School Attached to the Faculty of Education, shall be established under the Faculty of Education, the University of Tokyo.

2. The University of Tokyo Hospital shall be established under the Faculty of Medicine, the University of Tokyo.
3. The IMSUT Hospital, the Institute of Medical Science Research Hospital shall be established under the Institute of Medical Science, the University of Tokyo.
4. The school and hospital organizations described in the preceding three paragraphs shall be governed by the provisions of these Rules and also as provided for separately.

Chapter 2 Executive, Academic and Administrative Staff Members

Section 1 Executive Staff Members

(Executive staff members)

Article 4 Pursuant to the provisions of the Corporation Act, the University Corporation shall appoint an executive staff comprised of the president who is its head, up to nine executive vice presidents (ten executive vice presidents shall be appointed when one or more part-time executive vice presidents are employed [limited to those who are not executive staff members or academic and administrative staff members of the University Corporation at the time of said appointment, hereinafter referred to as “External Vice Presidents”), and two comptrollers.

2. At least two (at least one if an External Vice President is appointed as president) of the executive vice presidents set forth in the previous paragraph shall be External Vice

(List of university academic organizations)

Article 46 The president shall create a list of university academic organizations including faculty departments, programs, and modules (Article 23 paragraph 2), graduate school and other graduate-level organizations' departments and divisions (Article 28 paragraph 2, Article 34 paragraphs 4 and 5), institute research divisions (Article 40 paragraph 2) and academic facilities attached to university academic organizations (Article 44).

(Amendment and abolition of these Rules)

Article 47 These Rules may be abolished by resolution of the Board of Directors after consideration by the Administrative Council and the Education and Research Council of matters pertaining to their areas of responsibility.

Supplementary Provisions

Article 1 These Rules shall come into effect from April 1, 2004.

Article 2 At the time of the establishment of the University Corporation (hereinafter referred to as the "time of incorporation"), the academic and administrative staff of the University of Tokyo as listed in the first column of the table attached to the Corporation Act (hereinafter referred to as the "former University of Tokyo"), who are academic or administrative staff of the University Corporation pursuant to the supplementary provisions of the Corporation Act (hereinafter referred to as "continuing academic and administrative staff members"), shall be subject to the provisions of the following paragraphs concerning the position that they should fulfill at the attached school, attached hospitals and the University of Tokyo established by the University Corporation after the time of incorporation (hereinafter referred to as the “new University of Tokyo”), excluding the case that other Rules prescribe otherwise.

2. Continuing academic and administrative staff members, unless provided for in the issuance of another law, shall continue in a position in the new University of Tokyo equivalent to their position in the former University of Tokyo office (hereinafter referred to as “equivalent position”).

3. If the Faculty Council resolves that additional special procedures (hereinafter referred to as “special procedures”) are required for the appointment of an academic or administrative staff member to an equivalent position, if in order to be appointed to their former position that individual was required to pass special procedures equivalent to those special procedures, they will not be required to pass any special procedures for appointment to the new position.

4. If both the former position and the equivalent position to which a continuing academic or administrative staff member is appointed are fixed-term positions, the term of office of the individual appointed to the equivalent position shall be until the end of the term of office of the former position.

Article 3 The University Corporation shall regard any processes implemented to employ certain individuals in the former University of Tokyo for a particular position before the establishment of the University Corporation as having been carried out by the University Corporation in order to employ these individuals in the equivalent position in the University Corporation.
