Chapter 3 Prevention of Compliance Irregularities (Article 8, Article 9)

Chapter 4 Response to Compliance Irregularities (Article 10 - Article 18)

Chapter 5 Miscellaneous Provisions (Article 19)

Supplementary Provisions

Chapter 1 General Provisions

Article 1 Purpose

The purpose of these rules is to establish the basic matters concerning compliance at the National University Corporation, the University of Tokyo (hereinafter referred to as the “University”) and thereby to contribute to the maintenance of a sound and proper management of the University and public confidence in the University.

Article 2 Definitions

In these rules, the meanings of the terms listed in the following items shall be as prescribed respectively in those items:

- (1) “Compliance” means observance of laws, the University rules and regulations, and other norms such as ethics inherent in education and research.
- (2) “Academic and administrative staff” means executive, academic and administrative staff (including fixed-term project staff, fixed-term part-time staff, and fixed-term part-time project staff) who belong to the University.
- (3) “Students” mean undergraduate and graduate students who belong to the University.

- (4) “Academic organization” means university-wide organizations and university academic organizations listed in Chapters 3 and 4 of the University of Tokyo Rules on Basic Organization, the Secondary School attached to the Faculty of Education, and the University of Tokyo Hospital.
- (5) A “compliance irregularity” means a case which violates or is suspected of violating laws applicable to members of the University or the University rules and regulations.

Article 3 Responsibilities of academic and administrative staff and students

Academic and administrative staff and students shall maintain awareness of their own responsibilities, fully recognize the importance of compliance, respect human rights, and act with high ethical standards in order to achieve the goals and principles of the Charter of the University of Tokyo.

Chapter 2 Structure for the Promotion of Compliance

Article 4 Chief Compliance Officer

The President shall be ultimately responsible for the implementation of compliance procedures within the University.

Article 5 Senior Compliance Officer

1. The University shall have a Senior Compliance Officer in order to have him/her supervise operations concerning compliance.
2. The Senior Compliance Officer shall supervise the Executive Vice Presidents in dealing with compliance irregularities.
3. An Executive Vice President designated by the President shall serve as the Senior Compliance Officer.

Article 6 Compliance Officer

1. Each academic organization shall have the Compliance Officer specified in Appended Table 1 in order to have him/her supervise the promotion of compliance at each academic organization.
2. The Executive Vice President shall supervise the execution of the duties by the Compliance Officer set forth in the preceding paragraph pertaining to compliance irregularities under the Executive Vice President’s jurisdiction.

Article 7 Compliance Oversight Committee

1. The Compliance Oversight Committee (hereinafter referred to as the “Compliance Committee”) shall be established in the University.
2. The Compliance Committee shall conduct comprehensive deliberations concerning overall verification and plans for prevention of compliance irregularities, and deliver its opinion concerning appropriate measures (including internal audit) to the President as necessary.
3. The Compliance Committee shall consist of the Senior Compliance Officer, Executive Vice Presidents, and others appointed by the Senior Compliance Officer.
4. The Senior Compliance Officer shall serve as Chairperson of the Compliance Committee.
5. In addition to what is provided for in the preceding paragraph, matters necessary for the operation of the Compliance Committee shall be specified separately.

Article 7-2 Compliance Oversight Office

1. The Compliance Oversight Office (hereinafter referred to as the “Compliance Office”) shall be established under the Compliance Committee.
2. The Compliance Office shall plan and coordinate the operation of the Compliance Committee and supervise practical operations of the investigation conducted by the Senior Compliance Officer set forth in paragraph 1 of Article 14.

Chapter 3 Prevention of Compliance Irregularities

Article 8 Education and Training

1. The Senior Compliance Officer shall endeavor to establish a university-wide education and training system for academic and administrative staff, students, and other members of the University to raise their awareness of the importance of compliance and increase understanding of the laws and rules to be complied with.
2. The Senior Compliance Officer shall grasp the situation regarding education and training pertaining to compliance and take measures such as providing the Compliance Officers with the necessary instructions in order to perform his/her duty set forth in the preceding paragraph.

Article 9 Internal audits

1. The President shall conduct internal audits concerning compliance irregularities of a specific academic organization or the whole University as necessary.

2. Based on the result of internal audits set forth in the preceding paragraph, the Senior Compliance Officer and the Compliance Officers shall endeavor to enhance activities for the prevention of compliance irregularities.

Chapter 4 Response to Compliance Irregularities

Article 10 Report

1. On becoming aware of compliance irregularities, academic and administrative staff shall report the matter promptly to their superior or to the Compliance Officer.
2. On becoming aware of compliance irregularities, students shall endeavor to report the matter promptly to academic and administrative staff of the academic organization to which they belong.
3. The academic and administrative staff who receives the report set forth in the preceding two paragraphs shall report the compliance irregularity to the Compliance Officer.
4. The Compliance Officer who receives the report set forth in the preceding paragraph shall report such compliance irregularities as he/she finds important to the Executive Vice President who has jurisdiction over the said matter.
5. The Executive Vice President who receives the report set forth in the preceding paragraph shall report such compliance irregularities as he/she finds important to the Senior Compliance Officer.

Article 11 Hotlines

1. When there is a justifiable reason for not making a report set forth in paragraphs 1 and 2 of the preceding Article, academic and administrative staff and students may report through the hotlines specified in Appended Table 2.
2. The Executive Vice President who receives the report set forth in the preceding paragraph shall report such compliance irregularities as he/she finds important to the Senior Compliance Officer.

Article 12 Provision of Information

The provision of the preceding two Articles shall not preclude members of the University other than academic and administrative staff and students from providing academic and administrative staff with information on compliance irregularities or using the hotlines set forth in paragraph 1 of the preceding Article.

Article 13 Responsibilities of Reporters

A person who reports a compliance irregularity (hereinafter referred to as a “reporter”) shall do so based on objective and reasonable grounds and shall not do so with a purpose of defamation or any other wrongful purpose.

Article 14 Investigation procedures concerning academic and administrative staff

1. The Senior Compliance Officer who receives the report set forth in paragraph 5 of Article 10 or paragraph 2 of Article 11 pertaining to academic and administrative staff shall request the head of the academic organization or an Executive Vice President to conduct an investigation of the facts concerning the compliance irregularities as necessary; provided, however, that this shall not preclude the Senior Compliance Officer from conducting the investigation himself/herself such as establishing a new commission under the direct control of the Senior Compliance Officer.
2. The head of the academic organization and the Executive Vice President shall report the result of the investigation set forth in the preceding paragraph to the Senior Compliance Officer.
3. Academic and administrative staff shall cooperate with the investigation set forth in paragraph 1 when so requested.
4. The Senior Compliance Officer shall take appropriate action such as reporting the facts of compliance irregularities and measures for preventing a recurrence to the President based on the result of the investigation set forth in paragraph 2.
5. The Senior Compliance Officer shall, when he/she deems it necessary based on the result of the investigation set forth in paragraph 2, report to the President about subjecting the compliance irregularities to the disciplinary proceedings upon consulting with the Executive Vice President in charge of the matter.

Article 15 Investigation procedures concerning students

1. Compliance irregularities pertaining to students shall be investigated appropriately with educational consideration on the responsibility of the head of the academic organization to which the students belong, and educational guidance shall be provided based on the result of the investigation as necessary.
2. The head of the academic organization shall, when he/she deems there is an act that may warrant a disciplinary action based on the result of the investigation set forth in the preceding paragraph, take appropriate actions such as notifying the President of his/her opinion based on the University of Tokyo Regulations on Disciplinary Action against Students.

Article 16 Appropriate consideration on dealing with compliance irregularities

The Senior Compliance Officer and the Compliance Officers shall take the necessary measures so that sufficient consideration is given to the following items when dealing with compliance irregularities at the University:

- (1) To prevent a reporter or any person who cooperates with the investigation from disadvantageous treatment.
- (2) Not to unduly violate the honor and privacy of the person who is subject of the investigation.
- (3) To ensure objectivity and fairness in the investigation, such as the participation of an external specialist as deemed necessary.

Article 17 Measures taken by the President

The President shall, when receiving the report or notification set forth in paragraphs 4 and 5 of Article 14 or paragraph 2 of Article 15, suspend the illegal acts, etc. or restore to a lawful state as necessary, and take necessary measures such as the prevention of recurrence and disciplinary action.

Article 18 Accountability

A compliance irregularity shall be reported to related agencies appropriately and be disclosed to the public in an appropriate time and manner as necessary, taking the social impact of the said matter into consideration.

Chapter 5 Miscellaneous Provisions
