Today’s world faces new challenges, such as a reversal in globalization and rising security tensions in the Korean Peninsula. At a time of fragile China-Japan-Korea (CJK) political relations, how can we promote trilateral cooperation to deal with these challenges? This roundtable by the three deans involved with CAMPUS Asia discusses recent developments and prospects for East Asia’s policy issues, including U.S.-China trade tensions, Chinese infrastructure construction initiatives, and security challenges.

Speakers

Cheol Hee PARK
Dean

Qingguo JIA
Dean

Akio TAKAHARA
Dean

Date: July 4th 2018 13:30-15:35

Venue: SMBC Academia Hall
International Academic Research Building
Hongo Campus, The University of Tokyo

Language: English

Please register for attendance from here →

CAMPUS Asia Program is a degree and exchange program held in English by top universities of CJK- Graduate School of International Studies at Peking University, Graduate School of Public Policy at The University of Tokyo, and School of International Studies at Seoul National University.
The program encourages students to interact within CJK and enhance understanding in the fields of public policy and international affairs, as well as the culture of each country.