

Sato Yo International Scholarship Foundation (SISF)

(Scholarship for Short-term Exchange Students) <http://sisf.or.jp/en/scholarship-2/foreign-studies-2/short-term/>

➤ For:

The students from the following selected universities in South East Asia.

University of Indonesia (Indonesia), Gadjah Mada University (Indonesia), National University of Singapore (Singapore), Nanyang Technological University (Singapore), University of the Philippines (Philippines), University of Malaya (Malaysia), Chulalongkorn University (Thailand)

➤ Purpose of the Scholarship:

SISF is awarded to students who have

- Demonstrated academic excellence and commitment to further their education.
- Dedication to promoting cross-cultural understanding and international exchange with Japan and other countries.
- Dedication to contribute to society through community involvement and volunteer activities.
- A strong motivation to give back to society.

➤ Award amount:

JPY120,000 per month, roundtrip air tickets, JPY 100,000 for Lump-sum exchange grant and one-way ground transportation expense from the arrival airport to the nearest station to accommodation.

➤ Award duration:

For one-year (both A1A2 and S1S2 Semesters) exchange starting from Autumn.

➤ Number of recipients: 2

➤ Eligibility:

1. Students who hold a minimum 3.0 cumulative GPA on a 4.0 scale at their home institutions or equivalent.
2. Students who are strongly committed to cross-cultural exchange and will participate in bimonthly networking events in Tokyo hosted by the Foundation. The events will be held in Japanese.
3. Students who have clear purpose and plan for studying in Japan, and who will benefit most from the exchange.
4. Students who will not be receiving any other scholarship or study grant during the exchange.

5. Students who will arrive in Japan by the end of September and will be enrolled at the University of Tokyo (UTokyo) for one-year (both A1A2 and S1S2 terms) exchange.

6. Students who do not have PhD degree.

7. Students who can communicate in Japanese* or English.

*Japanese proficiency at the time of application is not required: However, the scholarship recipients are expected to acquire a basic, conversational level of Japanese during their exchange at UTokyo.

➤ How to apply:

Ask the exchange coordinator at your university.