1. Outline

USTC International Summer Camp 2020 is a short-term, summer study abroad program held by University of Science and Technology of China for Japanese partner universities. It is composed mainly of three modules, “The Chinese Culture Module”, “The Science Module”, and “The Local Social Module”, in which students will experience state-of-the-art technologies and the Chinese culture and traditions. Ambassadors from USTC will join in as well. Students from Japan and from USTC will make joint groups and on the last day each group will give a presentation. Please refer to “Attachment 1: Program Information” for details.

USTC International Summer Camp 2020 on Advanced Sciences and Chinese Culture Heritage

Date: August 17 - August 26, 2020

Target: Undergraduate and graduate students

Capacity: 5 students

2. Eligibility Criteria and Requirements

All of the following criteria and requirements must be met:

- (1) Applicants must meet the requirements set by USTC. Please see Attachment 1 for further details.
- (2) Following the criteria set by USTC, students with Chinese nationality cannot apply to this program.
- (3) Applicants must be students who are enrolled as full-time undergraduate or graduate students of the University at the time of application and during the study abroad program. (Those who are on a temporary leave of absence from the University during the time of the program cannot apply.)
- (4) Before applying, applicants must make sure that the programs do not interfere with their Semester courses by carefully checking examination dates and other important scheduled class events as well as their personal schedules. Applicants may apply to the programs only after they have confirmed that it is possible for them to participate.
- (5) The handling of absences from the University’s courses while participating in the program will be determined by each student’s faculty or graduate school. Faculties and graduate schools may not necessarily give special consideration to students’ participation in the programs. Thus please check with your faculty/graduate school before applying to the programs.

* If you are affiliated to the College of Arts and Sciences Junior Division, not attending classes or exams due to participation in a study abroad program will be considered as an absence, it will also not be an acceptable reason for make-up exam. Contact the office of College of Arts and Sciences for more details.

- (6) Students who already have a supervisor or equivalent at the University must notify them of their application to the program in advance and receive their consent and signature in the designated document “Confirmation of Notification for Applying for the Study Abroad Programs Administered by the Division for Global Campus Initiatives, The University of Tokyo”. Students that do not have a supervisor or equivalent should contact and consult with the relevant section of the faculty or graduate school with which they will be affiliated during the program.

- (7) Before applying, students should consult with the relevant section of the faculty or graduate school with which they will be affiliated during the program in order to be made fully aware of the potential academic affairs you need to know. After agreeing to these conditions, students may apply to the program upon receiving the signature of the person in charge of the relevant section in the designated document “Confirmation of Notification for Applying for the Study Abroad Programs Administered by the Division for Global Campus Initiatives, The University of Tokyo”.
- (8) Students must be able to proactively take actions, such as preparing documents and checking deadlines because you will be responsible for directly contacting the host institution in English via website or e-mail regarding your application for the study abroad program.
- (9) [Insurance] After passing the internal selection process and being accepted into the study abroad program, students are required to take out the Japan Educational Exchanges and Services (JEES) “Futai Kaigaku” at their own expense (this will not be paid for by the University). Taking out this insurance will be one of the requirements for applying to a study abroad program through this general application.
- (10) [Overseas Student Safety Management Assistance] Students may be required by their faculty/graduate school to take out “OSSMA” (Overseas Student Safety Management Assistance) provided by Emergency Assistance Japan Co., Ltd. If students are selected to participate in the program, they must follow their faculty’s/graduate school’s instructions regarding “OSSMA” (it is the responsibility of the students to purchase OSSMA as this will not be paid for by the University).

3. Program Costs

The following expenses (amount approximately RMB 4,000) will be covered by USTC.

- Tuition
- Accommodation in a standard hotel room on twin-sharing basis
- Local administration
- Meals on campus
- Welcome and farewell dinner
- Pick up and see off transportation
- Local transportation

- ※ The electronic application system will be closed after the application deadline. Please note that incomplete applications will not be accepted even if they are submitted by the deadline.
- ※ Please note that the application period for this program differs from that written in Attachment 1.

5. Internal Selection Process

- (1) UTokyo will review the application documents and select 5 students.
- (2) Results of the selection will be sent out to the students e-mail directly as well as to the relevant offices of their faculty/graduate school.

- (3) If you must decline the offer under unavoidable circumstances, immediately contact the International Exchange Group of the UTokyo Administration Bureau.

6. Having Passed Internal Selection Process ~ Requirements for Post-Internal Selection up until Program Acceptance

[Participation procedures and travel arrangements]

It is the students' responsibility to follow the instructions of the host institutions and the International Exchange Group of the UTokyo Administration Bureau on participation procedures and travel arrangements. You should also follow the instructions of the host university when applying for a visa. Students are responsible for all expenses incurred during the process. If you are not permitted to participate in the programs due to insufficient documents, failure to check the deadline or other reasons, it is the students' responsibility.

[Internal procedures]

- (1) Confirm with the relevant office of your faculty to see if any study abroad procedures are necessary (such procedures differ by faculty).
- (2) Contact academic supervisors and other faculty members before departing to avoid unnecessary trouble that could be caused by participating in the program.
- (3) If there are any changes in information (addresses, phone numbers, email addresses) from the time of the application, contact your faculty and the International Exchange Group of the UTokyo Administration Bureau so that appropriate procedures can be undertaken.
- (4) If you must decline the offer under unavoidable circumstances, immediately contact the International Exchange Group of the UTokyo Administration Bureau (studyabroad.adm@gs.mail.u-tokyo.ac.jp).
- (5) Students must follow other warnings and notes from the University of Tokyo.

[Insurance]

As mentioned above, students are required to take out the Japan Educational Exchanges and Services (JEES) "Futai Kaigaku" at their own expense (this will not be paid for by the University). Taking out this insurance will be one of the requirements for applying to a study abroad program through this general application. Procedures to be enrolled in the "Futai Kaigaku" will be announced to students after they passed internal screening.

[Information on Study Abroad, Risk Management]

For general information on studying abroad and risk management, see the UTokyo Go Global website (<https://www.u-tokyo.ac.jp/adm/go-global/ja/voyage-index.html>). In particular, read the Overseas Travel Risk Management Guidebook carefully.

7. Obligations for Participating in Programs

- (1) Participants must fully comprehend the purposes of the programs and strive to complete the program courses while achieving a high level of academic performance.
- (2) Participants must be aware that they are representatives of the University, and thus must comply with the laws, regulations, rules and manners of their host universities and countries.

8. Post-Program Reports

- (1) Students must submit a report (in a format prescribed by the International Exchange Group of the UTokyo Administration Bureau) to the International Exchange Group of the university administration bureau, within two weeks of completing the program. As submitted reports will be used for PR activities and references for other students, make sure to write contents only which can be published in printed documents and/or website.

- (2) Upon completing the program, students may be asked to cooperate in the internationalization efforts of the University (advising students who wish to study abroad, promoting study abroad programs, and answering questionnaire surveys, etc.). Students are expected to participate unless there are unavoidable circumstances.
