

Advancement from the Junior Division to the Senior Division during Study-Abroad

1. Eligibility/Requirements

Applicants who wish to go and study abroad over the period when they are due to advance from the Junior Division to the Senior Division must satisfy all of the requirements below to be eligible.

- i. Have fulfilled or will fulfill with certainty all the requirements for completion of the Junior Division, i.e., advancement to the Senior Division tentatively offered and have gained all necessary credits at the beginning of the study abroad period in the second year. No special measures will be taken in the Junior Division including “Shingaku Sentaku” (Admission to Senior Division).
- ii. Notify the International Student Section, College of Arts and Sciences of your will to advance from the Junior Division to the Senior Division during your study-abroad at least ten days before the deadline set by College of Arts and Sciences by email (please make sure to specify your name and student number). Make sure that you receive the explanations on the points to be noted from the International Exchange Group.
- iii. After “ii” above, make sure to receive explanations from both the relevant offices of the Junior Division, College of Arts and Sciences and the Faculty(s) you will be advancing to on points that need to be noted concerning study-abroad, and fully understand them before submitting your application. Please note that there could be specific regulations regarding study-abroad issued by each faculty. Please make sure to receive explanations from all the potential faculties you could advance to and obtain all signatures.

Furthermore, see “3. Permission on advancement from the Junior Division to the Senior Division during study-abroad” for which faculty permits/does not permit it.

2. How to apply

Submit “Points to Note regarding Advancing from the Junior Division to the Senior Division during Study-abroad” at the time of application. Please make sure to obtain signatures from designated coordinators of the International Exchange Group, and the relevant offices of the Junior Division, College of Arts and Sciences, and the faculty you are scheduled to advance to. Please make sure to print all the pages of the Internal Application Form and take them with you when you ask them to sign the form.
