Tokyo College aims to generate new knowledge to contribute to the creation of an inclusive society and spark deeper public engagement with the University.

Shaping a Shared Future Together

Living Through a Pandemic
- Reassessing the Covid-19 Crisis around the World-

Date and time: June 2, 2020, 9 pm-11pm (JST), Language: English

Access the event using the live link https://youtu.be/9ght52PkJAQ

We're bringing you a series of online events looking at different angles of the COVID-19 pandemic.

This international roundtable brings together Tokyo College experts from UK, Germany, Sweden, South Korea, Japan and US to compare and contrast the responses around the world.

Speakers:
- Jeremy I. Adelman, Princeton University, USA
- Bill Emmott, Writer & Chairman of the Japan Society, UK
- Viktoria Eschbach-Szabo, Tübingen University, Germany
- Takeo Hoshi, The University of Tokyo, Japan
- Svante Lindqvist, Royal Swedish Academy of Science, Sweden
- PARK Cheol Hee, Seoul National University, South Korea

Moderator:
HANEDA Masashi
Director, Tokyo College, The University of Tokyo

Date and time: June 2, 2020, 9 pm-11pm (JST), Language: English

Prior to joining the event we recommend to watch videos prepared by each speaker on the pandemic situation in USA, UK, Germany, Japan, Sweden, and South Korea, at Tokyo College YouTube channel

[PLAY]Jeremy I. Adelman  Bill Emmott  Viktoria Eschbach-Szabo  Takeo Hoshi  Svante Lindqvist  PARK Cheol Hee