

TOKYO COLLEGE

共に考える。未来のかたち Shaping a Shared Future Together

Dialogue Series

YouTube

Dialogues with UTokyo's Partner Institutions: Perspectives on Society After COVID-19

Princeton - UTokyo Dialogue Series

What impact has the coronavirus crisis had on society and on universities, and where should we go from here? Researchers from Princeton University and the University of Tokyo, two important partners, discuss these issues.

Starts from 25 October 2021

Moderators

James RAYMO
Professor of Sociology, Princeton University

HANEDA Masashi
Director, Tokyo College, The University of Tokyo

Photo: Princeton University, Office of Communications.

Co-organized by Princeton University

Language English · Japanese

Contact tokyo.college.event@tc.u-tokyo.ac.jp

Theme 1 University Management

Speaker Deborah PRENTICE
Provost, Princeton University

AIHARA Hiroaki
Executive Vice President, The University of Tokyo

Theme 2 Gender Inequality

Speaker James RAYMO
Professor of Sociology, Princeton University

SHIRAHASE Sawako
Professor of Sociology, The University of Tokyo

Theme 3 Research

Speaker Michael STRAUSS
Professor of Astrophysics, Princeton University

YOSHIDA Naoki
Professor of Astrophysics, The University of Tokyo

Theme 4 International Affairs

Speaker John IKENBERRY
Professor of Politics and International Affairs, Princeton University

FUJIWARA Kiichi
Professor of International Relations, The University of Tokyo

Theme 5 Population Health

Speaker Noreen GOLDMAN
Professor of Epidemiology, Princeton University

TANAKA Ryuichi
Professor of Labor Economics, The University of Tokyo

Theme 6 Economy

Speaker Markus BRUNNENMEIER
Professor of Economics, Princeton University

HOSHI Takeo
Dean of the School of Economics, The University of Tokyo

Address

▶ Watch here

