

TOKYO COLLEGE

共に考える。未来のかたち Shaping a Shared Future Together

Lecture

The Future of Europe and the EU-Japan Partnership: The War in Ukraine and its Impact on Europe and Beyond

Speaker

H.E. Herman Van Rompuy President Emeritus of the European Council

Herman Van Rompuy, former Prime Minister of Belgium, is now President of the European Policy Centre and a visiting Professor in several universities (the College of Europe, KULeuven and others). He was the first full-time President of the European Council to take office when the Lisbon Treaty came into force in 2009. He has been awarded many honours and prizes, among which the Charlemagne Prize - Internationale Karlspreis. He received the Nobel Peace Prize on behalf of the EU in 2012. In 2015, King Philippe II of Belgium ennobled Herman Van Rompuy by making him a Count.

The war in Ukraine has shaken our confidence in peace and prosperity within Europe and beyond. What is needed to overcome such a crisis in international relations? H.E. Herman Van Rompuy, President Emeritus of the European Council, leads the discussion by sharing his insights on the future of Europe and Japan which will be followed by Q&A sessions with students and others.

2022.7.12 [Tue.]

1:00 pm - 2:45 pm (12:30 pm Doors Open)

Facilitator

MINO Takashi

Deputy Director, Tokyo College,
The University of Tokyo

Opening
Remarks

HAYASHI Kaori

Executive Vice President,
The University of Tokyo

Moderator

IIDA Keisuke

Dean and Professor,
Graduate School of Public Policy,
The University of Tokyo

In-Person Event

Venue

Yasuda Auditorium, Hongo Campus

Co-organized by

Tokyo College & Graduate School of Public Policy (GraSPP),
The University of Tokyo

Language

English with Japanese simultaneous translation

Contact

tokyo.college.event@tc.u-tokyo.ac.jp

300 seats
(first come, first served)

Pre-registration required

▶ Register now

