

Kashiwa Connect and Share (KCS)

Casual experience sharing among young researchers at Kashiwa campus

Sharing #1

Becoming a faculty member: challenges and opportunities

I have been working as an assistant professor at Kashiwa campus for 7 months. In this casual chat, I take stock of my experiences so far. Highlights, challenges & lessons learnt are all included. Hopefully, these will be helpful for other young researchers at Kashiwa campus.

Organised by: Kashiwa International Office & Max Berthet
(Assistant Professor, Dpt. of Aero. and Astro., Gr. Sch. of Eng.)

Register here (QR→): <https://forms.gle/5vmNm8wNzmLZLcTaA>

Event details

Place: Environmental Studies Bdg., 1/F, Rm. 125 & online (Zoom link sent after registration)

Time & date: 21 July (Friday), 6-7pm
20 min talk / 20 min discussion

Language: English

Target audience: Young researchers, post-docs, faculty members.

Snacks provided!

Contact & more information: kio.adm@gs.mail.u-tokyo.ac.jp