

Fact Sheet for the University-wide Student Exchange Program

Why study at UTokyo — Tradition and Innovation

Founded in 1877, the University of Tokyo (UTokyo) is the oldest national university in Japan. Over the course of its long and distinguished history, the university has produced some of the most outstanding scholars, scientists, and social and political leaders of Japan and the world. As Japan's most comprehensive research university, UTokyo has 10 undergraduate faculties/college, 15 graduate schools, 11 affiliated Institutes, and a number of university-wide centers. UTokyo is committed to excellence in research and education as well as establishing a truly global campus to produce the next generation of leaders of the world.
