KÖLNER
STUDIERENDEN
WERK

Hey there! We are the Kölner Studierendenwerk.

Here in one of Germany's most popular cities, we assist you in your everyday university life. So you can focus on your studies. We are your central point of contact for questions about money; we can help you find housing, advise you on problems with your studies and we serve you fresh-cooked and also vegan food in our canteens and bistros every day.

This makes studying easy.

student-housing](https://kstw.de/en/student-housing)

We assist with your search for housing and help you find a suitable place to live – in one of our flats, shared flats or dormitory rooms, with student-friendly rental fees. Or through Vermieten an Studierende, our exchange for private rooms. Incidentally, we also offer advice and tips on relocating and finding a place to live.

Studying with a child? Sure!

Children's daycare

With our support, your degree and child(ren) can be accommodated even more effectively. Because we are dedicated to looking after your offspring while you are in the lecture hall. Since our daycare centers are located in the immediate neighborhood of the universities, you will always be nearby.

International students

Info, events & culture

The work we do aims to promote intercultural encounters, information and networking. We organize cultural and international events and provide information about topics such as the right of residence or the labor market. To achieve this, we cooperate with universities, student organisations and the city of Cologne.
