ACCOMMODATION & VISAS

Students will note their preference for university housing upon application and be placed in a lottery selection after acceptance. Northeastern offers limited on-campus accommodation in the Residence Halls. Rooms are shared with other same gender students. Off Campus Engagement and Support can assist students with finding an apartment off campus. Students will request their DS-2019s from the Office of Global Services after acceptance. DS-2019 paperwork is needed for the J-1 exchange student visa application. Guidelines for application will be provided in the application portal after acceptance, and DS-2019s will be issued electronically.

ACADEMICS

Northeastern's Incoming Exchange program is undergraduate only. Students take 3-4 courses for a full-time course load worth 12-16 credits. Labs and recitations are generally 1 credit hour. Northeastern operates on a semester system, and courses are taught in English. Due to high demand, course choices are limited in the School of Business. Exchange students are permitted to enroll in a maximum of two (2) business courses and are encouraged to supplement their curriculum with courses from other Schools/Departments, such as Economics.

Please visit the Academics section of the website for more details on course restrictions. At NU, classes (modules) are numbered from 1000-level (introductory) to 4000-level (advanced) for Bachelor's (undergraduate) students. Classes at the 5000-level are usually intended for Master's (graduate) students. 6000-7000 level courses are intended for PhD students and not available to exchange students. Students will take courses within the 1000-4999 levels only. Please note that we cannot guarantee placement in specific courses for any student.

BUDGETING

Students are responsible for their visas, living expenses, and flights. For the purposes of securing immigration paperwork and student visas, students will need to prove access to an estimated $14,000 each semester. Students may spend more or far less depending on their lifestyle.

PROGRAM DATES

Fall: End of August — mid-December
Spring: Early January — end of April
Full Year: End of August — end of April
