The Nutmeg's Curse: Non-human Voices and More-than-human Stories

Are humans the only beings that are endowed with the ability to communicate and make meaning? As we look back now on the historical trajectory that has brought us to the point of a planetary catastrophe, we cannot but recognize that our plight is in large part a consequence of the ways in which certain classes of humans have actively muted all other beings by representing them as brutes, creatures whose presence on earth is solely material. This lecture examines some of these entanglements through the story of the nutmeg tree.
